Officers contacted the 10 year old and her mother, and determined the child was leaving the bathroom when she was confronted by 35 year old Justin Owen Quarterman. Ali was apparently behaving inappropriately with female store employees, and physically bumping into people in the store. Upon the officer trying to contact Ali inside the store, Ali ran and tried to evade the officer, then physically resisted and had to be restrained to be arrested. Ali was arrested for public intoxication, resisting arrest, and violating parole.
