City Council Actions

- 2005 Council Established Panhandling Ord. 6091 U.C.C.
 - A person cannot:
 - Panhandle aggressively in any public place or

 - Panhandle generally - Within 20 feet of an entrance or exit of a check cashing business, retail store, supermarket, or automated teller machine without the consent of the business owner.
 - Panhandle a motor vehicle that is on a street, highway on or off ramps.
 - In a public transportation vehicle or in any public or private parking lot.

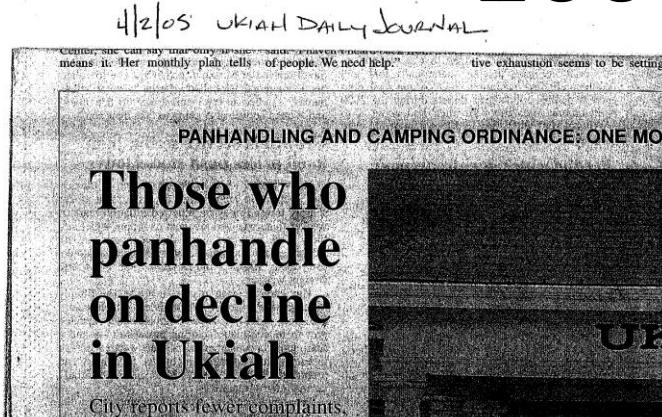

*First offense is an infraction and subsequent offense is a misdemeanor.

Camping Ordinance

- 2005 – Council Established Camping Ordinances:
- 6081 U.C.C – prohibits camping on any public property within the City and private property with some exceptions (special events, private residential property overnight guests)
- 6083 U.C.C – prohibits storage of camping equipment on private property without owner consent
- 6084 U.C.C – prohibits camping in a vehicle of any type on a street, alley, private street, or parking lot.

*First offense is an infraction and subsequent offense is a misdemeanor.

2005 Decline

Warnings: February to May 2005

Decrease in Calls: (*June -July Sample Period)
309 Transient Calls in 2004
to
91 Transient Calls in 2005

Transients reported that they came to the Ukiah community :

- for services or handouts
- lack of strict ordinances

The bulk of those traveling to Ukiah came for some type of assistance, or the kindness of the community.

Marijuana was not typically a factor.

Life Style Choice

- Many of todays transients are different than those Ukiah experienced in 2004
- Life style
- Out of state traveler
- Want easy to obtain services
- Aggressive panhandlers
- Not interested in long-term assistance
- Marijuana culture

Transient Attacks

- One officer, checking the Sun House Museum for a burglary alarm call, was assaulted by a transient from the Humboldt area who was under the influence of methamphetamine and had a number of outstanding warrants for his arrest. As a result of the assault, the officer seriously injured his shoulder.
- One officer was called to assist hospital staff after a transient brought to the emergency room for treatment became violent. The officer was forced to wrestle with a violent transient who was flinging his blood – infected with Hepatitis C – at the officer.
- One officer was trying to break up a fight between transients. Both transients turned their aggression toward the officer and began fighting with the officer, trying to take his gun. This officer was forced to fight alone until a CHP officer arrived to assist him.
- One officer contacted a transient who was trying to break into cars. When the officer determined the transient had a warrant for his arrest from the State of Washington and began to arrest the transient, the transient fought with the officer, and seriously injured the officer's knee.
- One officer was helping a transient from New York who said he was suicidal. The transient assaulted the officer and as a result of the struggle the transient injured the officer's knee.
- On 9/26/2012, a dog owned by a transient from Long Beach bit a senior citizen who was shopping at Walmart.
