Both subjects left their old shoes behind and exited the store wearing the new shoes, without paying. The two pairs of shoes were valued at over $25.00. Pinola raised his fists and took a fighting stance, and challenged the officer to fight. The officer took ahold of Pinola who pulled away and resisted being taken into custody, and was eventually arrested for public intoxication and resisting arrest. 13-2729

On October 13th at about 7:05 PM Ukiah Police responded to Safeway, at 653 South State Street, for a shoplifter. On October 14th at about 7:00 PM Ukiah Police responded to the Wal Mart parking lot, at 1155 Airport Park Boulevard, for subjects drinking alcohol. The arriving officer located a group seated on the ground, and recognized 23 year old Travis Humphrey seated in the middle of the group. Humphrey raised an open alcohol container towards the officer in a "cheers" type of fashion. Humphrey had previously been on probation and prohibited from being on Wal Mart property as a term of that probation, but that probation had been terminated. Humphrey told the officer he knew he could not be arrested for being on the Wal Mart property, and began calling the officer derogatory names. Humphrey had been drinking and was too intoxicated to care for himself, and the officer began to take him into custody. Humphrey pulled away and physically resisted, and was taken into custody after a brief struggle. Humphrey was arrested for public intoxication and resisting arrest. 13-2760
