Highlights for the Week

On November 23rd at about 12:35 AM a subject sprinted across the 1300 block of South State Street in front of an approaching Ukiah Police patrol vehicle, causing the officer to have to break to avoid striking the subject. Officers contacted the subject, identified as 21 year old Freddy Reyes-Rubeo, who discarded a marijuana smoking pipe as he was talking to the officers. As the officer was searching Reyes, he tried to break free and a struggle ensued until Reyes was handcuffed. Reyes was found to possess prescription medication, and less than one gram of methamphetamine and a methamphetamine smoking pipe. Reyes was arrested for resisting arrest, possessing medication without a prescription, drug paraphernalia, and methamphetamine. 14-3520

On November 21st at about 9:30 PM Ukiah Police responded to a residence on Betty Street for a robbery that just occurred. Officers learned the victim was sitting inside the residence when 18 year old Jared Foley and 18 year old Dmitri Curley-Holman entered the residence. Holman had been staying with the victim periodically, and was gathering his belongings when Foley began rummaging through the victim's belongings and medication. The victim confronted Foley, and a fight ensued. The victim and Foley continued fighting and the victim threatened to call the police. Foley restrained the victim from doing so, and the victim broke free and was running out of the residence when he was restrained by Holman. The victim finally freed himself, and the suspects fled the location. On November 23rd at about 7:45 AM a Mendocino County Sheriff's Deputy located Holman at the Southside Market on Oak Knoll Road. A Ukiah Police Officer responded and interviewed Holman, who confirmed he and Foley were at the victim's residence and that the victim kicked Holman, who then restrained the victim. Holman was arrested for conspiracy, robbery, burglary, and preventing a victim from calling 911. At about 3:10 PM Foley was contacted, who claimed he was home at the time of the incident. Foley was arrested for the same charges. 14-3508
