UPD Case # 16-0239

On January 25th at about 3:50 pm, UPD Officers responded to a residence in the 400 block of Clara Ave. regarding a male refusing to leave. While en-route, Officers learned the male had hit another female over the head with a bottle. Officers responded code 3 and upon arrival, saw the male jump the back fence of the residence and run from the scene. UPD Officers gave chase and were able to catch the male, later identified as 19 year old Kevin Quijada. Further investigation revealed Quijada was involved in a fight with his girlfriend and when a friend tried to intervene, he hit the friend over the head with a glass water bong. Quijada was arrested for domestic violence and assault with a deadly weapon and was booked into Mendocino County Jail.
