Press Release Traffic Collision North Oak Street UPD case #16-0415

On February 11th at about 9:30 am, UPD Officers responded code 3 to North Oak Street at Gibson Street, for a report of a rollover traffic accident with a subject trapped inside. Upon arrival officers found a 2009 Ford Sedan resting on its top, blocking both north and southbound lanes of traffic. Alert Ukiah citizens were on scene and directing traffic away from the accident. Ukiah Fire Department personnel and an ambulance service arrived to deal with the driver, who was still inside of the vehicle. The driver was able to self-extricate herself from the overturned vehicle and was transported to Ukiah Valley Medical Center for her injuries. During the investigations officers determined that Guadalupe Magdaleno-Rankel age 39 of Ukiah was traveling southbound on North Oak Street. Guadalupe told officers she felt faint and went to pull over when the collision occurred. Evidence showed that Guadalupe had turned her vehicle and collided with a legally parked unoccupied City of Ukiah vehicle. The impact of the collision pushed the City of Ukiah vehicle approximately 15' forward. Both vehicles sustained major to total damage and had to be towed from the scene. A records check revealed that Guadalupe was driving without a valid drivers' license and she was cited for the violation.
