Press Release / Assault with a deadly weapon UPD case #16-1043

On April 11th at about 6:30 am, UPD officers were dispatched to the 800 block of North State Street, Redwood Tree Car Wash, for a report of an assault victim waiting to speak to an officer. Upon arrival, officers contacted a 57 year old male victim. The victim had visible injuries on his hands, arms, face and head. The victim reported that the prior evening he was camping near the railroad tracks about 200 yards north of Brush Street, with a subject he knew as Cynthia Philliber age 24. Philliber and the victim were talking, when she became upset with the victim and starting yelling him. Philliber then used a wooden stick, a metal bar and rocks to assault the victim causing bruising, swelling and bleeding to his arms, hands, face and head. The victim said that during the night of the assault he attempted to escape and call law enforcement, but was stopped by Philliber who brought him back to the camp. The victim was transported to UVMC via ambulance to be treated for his injuries. A UPD officer located Philliber near the described the camp and a records check revealed that Philliber was on probation. Philliber was placed under arrest for assault with a deadly weapon, kidnapping, and violation of her probation. Philliber was booked into county jail.
