Press Release: Loaded firearms located / Felon arrested UPD case # 16-2279

On August 5th at about 9:56 pm, a UPD officer performed a traffic enforcement stop on a 2014 black VW Jetta, in the 700 block of South State Street. The driver was identified as Eric Silk-Hoaglin age 25. Silk-Hoaglin was on felony probation with search terms and was driving on a suspended license. The passenger in the vehicle was identified as Lalita Bock, age 26. As the officer spoke with Silk-Hoaglin, he could smell the odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle and Bock admitted to recently smoking marijuana inside the vehicle. During a search of the vehicle an officer located two loaded firearms. Also inside the vehicle was suspected methamphetamine, heroin and drug paraphernalia, all linked to Silk-Hoaglin. Silk-Hoaglin was placed under arrest for felon in possession of a firearm, carrying a loaded firearm, felon in possession of ammunition, driving on a suspended license, possession of drug paraphernalia and possession of a controlled substance. Silk-Hoaglin was booked into county jail on the charges. Lalita Bock was found to be in possession of drug paraphernalia and cited and released in the field.
