Press Release: Man arrested / children located in out of county parental abduction case UPD case # 16-2627

On September 8th at about 1:17 pm, UPD dispatch received a call from an employee at Redwood Coast Regional Center in the 1100 block of Airport Park Blvd., in regards to a suspicious vehicle in the parking lot of the business. The employee was able to provide the license plate of the vehicle, and a description of a male and two children that had walked away from it. UPD dispatch conducted a records check on the vehicle and found that it was reportedly associated with a parental child abduction case out of Santa Maria California. A Kevin Dirksen age 33 was listed as the suspect in the case and the two children reported abducted, were his 7 and 12 year old sons. There was also a domestic violence restraining order in place, restricting Dirksen from having contact with the children. UPD officers, Detectives and a MCSO Deputy, immediately responded to the location, saturated the area looking for Dirksen and the two children. Dirksen was located inside of Wal*Mart and taken into custody without incident. The 7 and 12 year old were also located, transported to UPD where one of our officers provided them with a meal because they were hungry. The children were then turned over to the custody of Child Protective Services. Dirksen was booked into county jail for violation of a domestic violence restraining order and a felony warrant out of Santa Barbara County for child abduction; bail set at $100,000.

On September 9th at about 10:16 pm, a UPD officer on patrol was at Alex Thomas Plaza, where the Chili Cook Off was being held. The officer was contacted by Sheriff Tom Allman, who reported a subject that was causing a disturbance. Another officer responded to assist and they contacted Daniel Delossantos age 49, who was known by the officers. A records check revealed that Delossantos was on probation with terms that included search and seizure. When officers attempted to search his person per his probation, Delossantos attempted to assault the officer and he was taken into custody. Delossantos was placed under arrest for violation of his probation and resisting / delaying an officer. Delossantos was booked into county jail. 16-2639

On September 9th at about 11:56 pm, a UPD officer was dispatched to a residence in the 600 block of Willow Avenue, to investigate an intoxicated female, who was located on the resident's porch. The officer located the female subject, who had road-rash on her hands, no shoes on and smelled strongly of alcohol. The female subject was identified as Lauren Mcentee age 27. Mcentee was placed under arrest for public intoxication and booked into county jail. 16-2642

On September 10th at about 2 am, a UPD officer performed a traffic stop on a vehicle in the 300 block of East Perkins Street, for a traffic violation. The driver was identified as Feras Asfour age 32. As the officer was talking with Asfour he suspected that Asfour was intoxicated and began a DUI investigation. Asfour was placed under arrest for DUI, but refused to provide an alcohol screen test. A local Judge was contacted and a search warrant was granted to draw a blood sample from Asfour. Asfour was taken to UVMC, the warrant was served for the blood draw and afterwards Asfour was booked into county jail. 16-2643

On September 11th at about 12:34 am, a UPD officer was conducting a security check at Redwood Children Services in the 300 block of East Gobbi Street, when he found a female subject sleeping on the south porch. RCS had requested UPD check the location during the night time hours, due to transients camping at the location and leaving syringes behind. The female subject was identified as Kelisha Alvarez age 27. Alvarez was cited in the field for illegal camping and provided a court appearance date. 16-2647

On September 11th at about 1:13 am, a UPD officer was dispatched to the area of the railroad tracks behind 139 Ford Street, for a report of subjects heard shouting at the location. Upon arrival the officer observed a female subject near the location, who was screaming and appeared to be intoxicated. As the officer attempted to contact the female subject she fled on foot, but was caught and detained. The female subject was identified as Andrea Kidd age 27. Kidd was placed under arrest for public intoxication and resisting / delaying an officer. A records check revealed that Kidd was on felony probation with a no alcohol clause and two felony warrants. Kidd was booked into county jail on all the offences. 16-2648

On September 12th at about 10:59 am, a UPD officer was dispatched to a residence in the 200 block of Low Gap Road, regarding a burglary report. Upon arrival the victim told the officer that on September 11th at about 7 pm, his garage was locked and secured for the evening. This morning just before calling the police he noticed a broken window located at the rear of his garage and a padlock that had been removed from a metal storage shed on his property. The victim said that the only thing he found missing was a 8" x 3" wooden Cedar box, that had been inside his garage on a work bench. 16-2656

On September 12th at about 5:15 pm, a UPD officer was on patrol, when he observed a blue colored Chevrolet Malibu in the 300 block of Mason Street, traveling at a high rate of speed. As the vehicle passed the officer, he recognized the driver as Alexander Louis Jackson age 33, from prior law enforcement contacts. The Malibu reached a speed of approximately 75 MPH, as the officer attempted to catch up with him. The Malibu turned westbound onto East Smith Street and as the officer caught up, Jackson parked the vehicle in the 200 block of East Smith Street. Jackson exited the vehicle, walked into the middle of the roadway and took a fighting stance with his fists held up. The officer had requested a backup officer respond and gave Jackson verbal orders. Jackson calmed down, tossed the keys to the officer and made a statement that he was drunk. As the officer spoke with Jackson, he suspected that Jackson was indeed intoxicated and began a DUI investigation. Jackson was placed under arrest for DUI and later booked, cited and released with a court appearance date. 16-2661
