Highlights for the Week

On March 9th at about 11:05 am, UPD officers were dispatched to New Beginnings in the 500 block of Low Gap Road, regarding an 8th grade student who had tied a hairband around her neck, attempting suicide. Upon arrival, officers contacted and detained the student. After evaluating the student, she was detained for a mental health evaluation and transported to Ukiah Valley Medical Center ER. A mental health professional was contacted and responded, taking custody of the juvenile. 17-0697

On March 9th at about 2:55 pm, UPD officers were dispatched to the area of Ross on East Perkins Street, regarding a physical altercation in progress. Dispatch advised responding officers that one subject was being attacked by multiple subjects. An officer arrived in the area and observed two subjects he recognized from prior contacts. These two subjects were pointing to and chasing a third. The officer responded to and contacted this third subject, who was wearing an ankle monitor and bleeding slightly front the side of his face. This subject was identified as Javier Pena-Martinez, a 35-year-old male out of Santa Rosa. Pena-Martinez was detained and a records check revealed that he was on probation out of Sonoma County. During the subsequent investigation, officers learned that Pena-Martinez and another unidentified male subject had been inside JC Penny's on North Orchard Avenue. Pena-Martinez and this other unidentified subject took over $1,000 worth of jeans and exited the store. A citizen saw the theft and tackled Pena-Martinez outside of the store. The other male dropped the stolen merchandise he was carrying and fled. Pena-Martinez got away from the citizen and was chased, before being located and stopped by law enforcement. The stolen merchandise was recovered and Pena-Martinez was placed under arrest for Grand Theft. Pena-Martinez was booked into county jail. 17-0700

On March 9th at about 9:06 pm, a UPD officer performed an enforcement stop on a vehicle in the 200 block of West Gobbi Street, for traffic violations. The officer contacted the driver, who was identified as Michael Erostico, a 28-year-old local resident. As the officer spoke with Erostico, he suspected that Erostico was intoxicated and began a DUI investigation. A records check revealed that Erostico's license was suspended for a prior DUI and he had a misdemeanor warrant. Erostico was placed under arrest for DUI, driving suspended and for the warrant. Erostico was booked into jail for the violations. 17-0704

On March 9th at about 10:11 pm, UPD officers were on patrol in the 300 block of Mason Street, when they contacted a male subject. The male subject was identified as Bruce Cartwright, a 24-year-old male out of Willits. A records check revealed Cartwright had two felony warrants and a felony parole pick up order for his arrest. Cartwright was taken into custody without incident and booked into county jail. 17-0705

On March 9th at about 3:44 am, UPD officers were conducting a security check of CVS on South Orchard Avenue, for subjects illegally camping, in response to continued complaints. Upon arrival, officers located a male subject camping, who they recognized as Scotty Willis, a 33-year-old local transient. Willis was aware of the city's camping ordinance and cited for the violation. 17-0706

On March 10th at about 6:06 pm, UPD officers were dispatched to Wal-Mart on Airport Park Blvd., for a report of a possible shoplifter inside the store. A description was provided and officers contacted the subject, who was identified as James Lowe, a 37-year-old transient originally out of Missouri. A records check revealed that Lowe was on probation, with a term that included stay away from Wal-Mart. Lowe was found to be in possession of a glass methamphetamine-smoking pipe. Lowe was placed under arrest for violation of probation and for possession of drug paraphernalia. Lowe was booked into county jail. 17-0710

On March 10th at about 10:58 pm, UPD officers were dispatched to the 1100 block of Mulberry Street, regarding a male subject screaming outside of the location. Upon arrival, officers located a male subject who they recognized as Jared Kidd, a 25-year-old local transient and known habitual drunkard. Kidd was found to be belligerent and intoxicated. Kidd was placed under arrest for public intoxication and booked into county jail. 17-0711

On March 10th at about 9:49 pm, UPD officers were dispatched to McCarty's Auto in the 900 block of North State Street, regarding a burglary in progress. The reporting party was watching the suspect on video surveillance and provided a description of him. Upon arrival, an officer located the suspect who was attempting to hide from officers behind a Coca Cola vending machine. The subject was identified as Keith Driver, a 41-year-old subject originally out of Missouri. A records check revealed that Driver was on probation, had a misdemeanor warrant for theft and a felony warrant for burglary, both out of Sonoma County. During the subsequent investigation officers learned that Driver used tools in an attempt to break into the vending machine, which damaged its lock. Driver was placed under arrest for his warrants,
