Case #20-2854

Date: 12/18/20

Location: 390 E. Gobbi St. Ukiah, CA. 95482

Suspect: Magdaleno-Pulido, Trinidad Luise (age 18) of Ukiah

Offenses: 25850(c)(4) PC – Unlawful Possession of a Concealed Loaded Firearm
 11351 HS – Possession of a Controlled Substance for Sales
 11370.1 HS – Possession of a Controlled Substance with a Loaded Firearm
 11352(a) HS – Transportation of a Controlled Substance
 12500(a) CVC – Unlicensed Driver

On 12/18/20 at approximately 1312 hours, two UPD officers were doubled in a marked police vehicle and were traveling eastbound on E. Gobbi St. One of the officers observed a vehicle pass them traveling westbound and recognized the driver of the vehicle as Trinidad Luise Magdaleno-Pulido. Magdaleno-Pulido was known to the officer from prior law enforcement contacts. The officer was also aware that Magdaleno-Pulido did not have a driver's license, and the officer had warned Magdaleno-Pulido about driving a motor vehicle without a license in the past.

The officers turned their police vehicle around to initiate a traffic enforcement stop on Magdaleno-Pulido. Prior to the officers activating the overhead emergency lights on their patrol vehicle, Magdaleno-Pulido pulled his vehicle into the parking lot of Express Mart (390 E. Gobbi St.) and entered the store. The officers contacted Magdaleno-Pulido inside the store and advised him they had observed him driving. The officers confirmed through a DMV records check that Magdaleno-Pulido did not have a driver's license issued to him.

The officers advised Magdaleno-Pulido that they were going to issue him a citation for driving without a license and have his vehicle towed per 22651(p) CVC. While performing an inventory search on Magdaleno-Pulido's vehicle the officers located a box of .38 Special ammunition. Officer's performed a pat search on Magdaleno-Pulido in belief he may be in possession of a firearm. In Magdaleno-Pulido's waistband, officers located a loaded Glock 9mm style pistol that had been assembled from a kit that are commonly marketed as "80% frames" (also commonly referred to as a ghost gun). In Magdaleno-Pulido's pants pocket the officers located two small bags of suspected cocaine. A more thorough search of the vehicle was performed and officers located a larger bag of cocaine hidden behind the dash of the vehicle.

Magdaleno-Pulido was placed under arrest for the above listed charges. Magdaleno-Pulido was transported to the MCSO Jail where he was booked.
