CANDIDATE'S STATEMENT
(Section 13307, Elections Code)

Name of Candidate Thao Phi Age 31
Occupation _____ Date of Election November 8, 2022
Name of Office City Council Name of District _____
Statement of education & qualifications:

*Love for the city, compassion for the community
Joy in collaboration, equanimity in all conditions*

It is key to address the challenges Ukiah faces with sustainable solutions so we can hone in on the strengths of our beautiful town. I believe in being responsible with our resources while continuing to expand and build on Ukiah's abundance.

Years of working closely with others has proven that people are really the heart and core of an institution or entity – in this case, Ukiah. I will diligently listen to our citizens with kindness and patience.

As a holder of a master's in organization and leadership, with over a decade of experience in education, I am passionate about fusing together creativity and innovation to bring greater organization, efficiency, and effectiveness.

It is time for younger generations to step into leadership and to form a multigenerational council that is responsive to the community. With a fresh perspective and collective wisdom of councilmembers, I am ready to collaborate and engage with the community for its betterment. I hope to be of service to the people and city of Ukiah.
