Tai Chi

This is an introductory or review class for the 37-movement yang style short form of traditional Tai Chi Chuan. Tai Chi is called meditation in motion, which it achieves by focusing the mind through slow deliberate movement. Its benefits include improved strength, flexibility, and balance.

Feldenkrais

The Feldenkrais Method was developed by Moshe Feldenkrais, a physicist, engineer, martial artist and educator. His method teaches you to become aware of habitual patterns and allows you to find options for new, more efficient and graceful movement. Many aches and pains disappear as we use ourselves in new effortless ways.

In Awareness Through Movement (ATM) lessons, the Feldenkrais teacher verbally guides you through a sequence of movements, usually lying on a pad, but sometimes sitting or standing. The instructions are to move slowly and gently so that self-awareness can begin to expand.

Benefits include:

Improvement in flexibility, suppleness and balance.

Reduction of pain aches and fatigue.

Increased coordination and muscular efficiency.

Stress reduction

Mats will be provided. Please wear loose, comfortable clothing that allows you to move.

For more information, call Karen Poplawski at (707) 462-6570 or visit our website at www.feldenkraisinukiah.com.

The Expendables have proven anything but in their nearly 25-year career since starting out as a spirited party band in high school covering surf-rock nuggets such as Dick Dale's "Miserloo" and "Wipe Out" for birthdays and family gatherings.

A quarter-century later, elementary school buddies Raul Bianchi, Adam Peterson and Geoff Weers, along with bassist Ryan DeMars, who joined in 2000, have forged a unique original sound born in the laid-back beach life of their Santa Cruz, CA. hometown.

The Expendables' infectious hybrid of ska, surf-rock, punk, reggae and metal can be heard in their latest streaming track, "Surfman Cometh," a spaghetti-western meets "Pipeline" twang that could easily form the soundtrack to the latest Quentin Tarantino film. The song is the first release from the group's new and improved Band Room, their longtime rehearsal space in a 1,100 square foot warehouse and former wine cellar on Coral Street, where Adam Patterson took charge of the mix to great effect. The band is currently touring and working on their next full length album.

Joining The Expendables is Top Shelf, Northern California's premier reggae band, delivering high-energy performances and smooth rhythms that set the perfect mood for a night of celebration.

At a time when most people feel constantly distracted by technology and barraged by the news, authenticity and straightforward honesty are paramount. There's something about the music of The Po' Ramblin' Boys that cuts right through the noise of the world and speaks plainly to the soul. Formed ten years ago in the Smoky Mountains in 2014, The Po' Ramblin' Boys are at once exactly what you would expect and not at all what you would expect from a tattooed East Tennessee Bluegrass outfit. But they take pride in being ambassadors of their genre, and the group has brought their music from rural bluegrass festival stages to the rock clubs of Europe, with stunning results.

Big Mountain originated in 1986 as the reggae band Rainbow Warriors in San Diego. In 1988, Joaquin Quino McWhinney, inspired by Bob Marley and of Mexican/Irish descent, became lead singer of Shiloh, which later became Big Mountain in 1991. The band gained popularity with «Touch My Light» in 1993 and achieved mainstream success with their cover of «Baby, I Love Your Way,» which became a major hit worldwide. Over the years, Big Mountain underwent several lineup changes and appeared at major reggae festivals. After a hiatus starting in 2005, the band reformed in 2013 with a new lineup and released the album Perfect Summer in 2016.

Estrella is a dynamic singer/songwriter blending reggae, jazz, and R&B. Based in Salinas, CA. Her musical journey flourished on Oahu, inspired by love and self-empowerment. She has performed with Tenelle, Pato Banton, Pacific Roots,

The Rudians, and more.

Together for over 32 years, Big Bad Voodoo Daddy — famously named after an autograph by blues legend Albert Collins — has appeared in concert venues across the world, sold millions of records, and had their music appear in hundreds of movies and television shows. With sold out concerts from the Hollywood Bowl to Lincoln Center, appearances with many of the country's finest symphony orchestras, and television appearances ranging from Dancing with the Stars to Superbowl XXXIII, Big Bad Voodoo Daddy continues its decades long mission to celebrate and revitalize jazz and swing music — America's original musical art form — and bring joy to audiences around the world.

Inspired by world travels & artistic encounters, Los Silverbacks is a World Music collective based in Venice, CA.

With blends of Latin, Spanish and African rhythms, their sound takes you from Congolese Rumba, through South American cumbia to Rockabilly.

Their respective richness and sensibility have them create some magical eclecticism when playing together.

A genuine reflection of everyone's cultural and musical roots.

For 2 decades TAINTED LOVE has been thrilling audiences across the country with their high energy, over-the-top renditions from the treasure trove of pop music known as the 1980's. Their show delivers something for every fan of music: pulsing dance beats, fist pumping rock anthems and guilty-pleasure sing-alongs, all performed with the highest level of musicianship and state-of-the-art sound and lighting.
