CITY OF UKIAH STATEMENT REGARDING HIGHWAY 29 TRAFFIC COLLISION

Ukiah, CA. October 8, 2026. – The City of Ukiah is aware of a traffic collision early this morning involving an off-duty Ukiah Police Department officer and a pedestrian on Highway 29 in Lake County.

The City is concerned for the well-being of those involved.

The collision was reported at approximately 4:02 a.m. The officer was off duty and driving home from a shift in a City-issued take-home vehicle. The California Highway Patrol responded to the scene, where the officer remained.

CHP is conducting an active investigation into the collision with the full cooperation of UPD and the officer involved. Additional information will be shared as it becomes available.
